Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE and LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of the kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head office are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Belfast, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Manchester, Yorkshire and other cities.

The Life Table is remarkable for the tranquillity and regularity of the rates of mortality, which have been found (as per annual statement) so continuously declining for 15 years by any Co., for the enormous extent of the transactions, whether £700,000 in new life assurance for 1863, and a Fire revenue of £740,000 per annum; for its accumulated funds, which are invested in the most safe and profitable securities, and realizable bulk in hand, over one million sterling; and for the annually increasing rate of bonus, having paid for the last quinquennial period of 10 annually online. Hence the highest rates of all societies, and the most liberal conditions, as to Policies, Loans, and other terms of this company.

The Directors have pleasure that "all the property of the Company is insured in the Royal Insurance Company to the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The Fire Premiums for the year 1863 amounted to £740,000 sterling, and the Life Premiums to £200,000.

Life policies can be effected without reference to England, for the full assurance money.

TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1864.

THE ORIENTAL DRAMA.

It is popularly believed that the last act in the great Oriental drama is about to take place—that the scene will now open with Flores and Moreno dodging about, the Brazilian squadron firing on the Montevidean custom-house, Paysandu there standing on the mole-head haranguing the ladies before they jump into the boats, and President Aguirre getting ready his luggage to embark by the steamer Paraguay for Liverpool. This is more or less the view which is now taken of the Oriental question. We however regard the matter in a very different light, and instead of this being the last act in the so called Oriental drama believe that the melodrama has been played out, and now we are treated to a new play entitled "Perilous Intervention," but in trenting of the said state of affairs in the Banda Oriental it is useless to speak in figurative language—it is better to set before our readers' eyes the working of the inimitable laws of Divine Providence, that we may be prepared for consequences which we regret to say appear almost inevitable.

The Brazilian Minister arrived here on Saturday, but the weather was so stormy that he could not land. Superstitious persons may possibly attach importance to this circumstance, but no matter what may have been the incidents attending his landing there cannot be the slightest doubt that his arrival here, after the orders which he sent to the Brazilian generals and his admiral, affords room for the greatest speculation on the future not only of the Uruguay but of the River Plate.

We are told that his Excellency has come here with the object of effecting the co-operation of the Argentine Government in the Brazilian movements, that President Mitre is only too willing and happy to afford it, and that the importance of Brazilian interest in the Oriental Republic is such as to justify the occupation of the country by Brazil until peace is made.

We of course decline offering any opinion on the new phase which matters have taken, but it is not altogether impossible that some fine morning we shall hear of the capture of Montevideo by the Brazilian admiral, and then who will bother themselves about the Chincha Islands?

The intervention of Brazil is only a necessary consequence of the late civil rebellion, and although Argentines plainly saw that such would ensue, they never properly estimated the subsequent difficulties.

Now at last we have arrived at the long talked of crisis, and what is the public doing? The Orientals, who are in Buenos Ayres and who have been the mainspring of the revolution, openly avow that if the Argentines choose their country they will find the finances, that Flores himself must do the same, and that the plain fact of the matter is this: the revolution which began by the invasion of two men in a small boat is apt to terminate by one of the most sanguinary episodes in South American story.

Again, if Argentines join with the Brazilians, who pays the expense? It is clear that our own Government cannot, since we have a debt already on us in the treasury, and the national resources are so straitened, that a rejection of the last loan order of Flores is mooted. As to a loan, the idea is ridiculous, since we all recollect the terms of the last; nothing, therefore, remains but the emission of paper dollars, and here we come at the real question. The Flores' rebellion has already ruined the Banda Oriental, and now it is beginning to tell on our exchange.

To allow the Brazilians to overrun the Banda Oriental, and occupy both Entrees and Colorado into the River Plate, might seem bad policy, but it is safer in the long run for Argentines, than to let Flores and his men over by Colonia, unless the Napoleonic system of warfare is to be adopted.

If the churches and other public buildings in the Oriental Republic were overflowing with gold and silver, or the estancieros were able to pay a ransom, like the inhabitants of Portland, nothing would be more convenient than to invade that republic; but the country is in the most impoverished state, and unless our Government is willing to gather up old bones in part payment of the expenses of the project, there is not a single item in the chest; it is supposed he was killed.

As a conclusion to the season of reducing, Mr. Wells is to make his ascent, next Sunday: but we have grave doubts about the weather which looks very broken, and it is quite possible that he may be obliged to make postponements. It is thought the procession of Corpus Christi and military review will come off next Sunday.

A Model way of Parting Cattle.

One of the greatest nuisances which the Buenos Ayres estancieros has to contend with, is the great difficulty which is experienced in getting what is called "a parting" from distant neighbors. During the cold winter nights, and the scorching summer days, horned cattle are the order how of "queranciado," will stray away, particularly in seasons of drought. There is then no keeping a "rodeo" of cows together. Estancieros at the moment console themselves with the reflection that all the cows and heifers are marked and señaled, and that when the camps get good, their peons will find them out, but this has proved to be a total delusion, and estancieros know it so to their cost. Rarely, if ever, the cattle which are recovered in distant parts are sufficient to pay the expense of a whole troop of peons, at twenty-five or thirty dollars per day. We have known estancieros to keep running about from one estancia to another, asking for a "rodeo" or parting, and invariably be refused, such requests on being always given, such as, the 'patron' was absent, or that the cattle were too poor, or that only the day previous a parting had been given, or that the cattle were never wanting, and the unfortunate estanciero, who is in search of his lost cows, has to return probably twenty leagues with his peons, bullocks, &c. no trifling expense. Days sometimes pass, and still "the cows don't come home." This is quite a real, and probably on the road learns that the butcher has been at the very estancia which he is going to, only a few days previous, and made a bargain for the whole army of the unfortunate man's cows are now on their way to town? Such cases are of every day occurrence. Our attention has been called to this matter by the rather novel way in which they part cattle in the Banda Oriental. The "Rodeo de Ganado Negro," a little paper printed in Mercedes, in the Rio Negro revived yesterday, and we notice with pleasure the following advertisement:

"ESTANCIA MAUA.

The undersigned invites all parties of the departments of Soriano and Colonia parting which he will give in the rodeos of cows and mares belonging to this estancia. The parting will commence on the 15th, and terminate on the 25th inst.

BENITO JOSE DE LIMA.

Estancia Maua, July 1st, 1864.

Now here we have fifteen days public notice given in the newspapers, of the parting, and all Dr. Lima's attention to this. If estancieros in Buenos Ayres would adopt a like course there would be less recriumination and more pastoral honesty.

ANOTHER WORK ON THE CONSTITUTION.

The following is the title of a new work, written by T. J. Hutchinson, Esq., English Consul at Rosario—"Buenos Ayres and Argentine Gleanings, with Extracts from Diary of Saado Exploration of 1862 and 1863." It is being published by the house of Edward Stanford, Geographical Establishment and London School Library, publisher to the Ordnance Department of her Majesty's Government, Charing Cross, London. It will be published in an octavo volume, large size, containing maps, plans, and illustrations, appendix and statistical tables of the commerce of the country, and also topographical descriptions of some of the upper provinces, comparatively unknown to the European reader.

We have much pleasure to announce to the Ferro-Carril, the publication of the above work, and it affords us an opportunity to congratulate Dr. Hutchinson for his untiring efforts to advance the material interests of this country. This gentleman, without any pecuniary remuneration, has undertaken, as his Government can remove him to any other place at will, has displayed more zeal on behalf of this country than even Argentines themselves. He has laboured, without ceasing, in his correspondence and in his communications to the various European societies to which he belongs, to impart correct views of those countries: and, we are well say, that few have done more in this respect than Dr. Hutchinson.

The work which we now refer to, is the result of laborious journeys in the Gran Chaco, Santiago, Tucuman, and Cordova, and contains most important information respecting these remote territories, their rivers, and adaptability to the wants and requirements of European emigrants, also very beautiful sketches of the people and their customs and manners.

The tables which the work contains have been compiled with the greatest admirable care. But that which reflects the greatest merit upon Dr. Hutchinson, is the fact, that the author had no pecuniary object in question when writing the work. The only remuneration which Dr. Hutchinson will probably receive, is the satisfaction of having helped to develope the industry of the country, where he temporarily resides.

We comply, therefore, with our duty in returning thanks to Dr. Hutchinson, in the name of this country, for his disinterested labours for the welfare of the Argentine Republic—Ferro-Carril.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The ball at the Progreso was the best attended for many years. We are told that there was a regular squeeze—dancing was kept up until it commenced to rain on Saturday morning. It was a great relief to all the public functionaries that Saturday was a wet day, as there was no procession. The 9th of July was a horribly wet muddy day; the majority of the people who had been up dancing the night before kept their beds all day. The decorations on the Policia were so terribly saturated that they were unbecoming in the extreme, the splendid blue and white flags looked like soiled lines; in all the rain however the merry-go round in the plaza was crowded with boys, and the greased pole which the municipality had put up in the plaza with a splendid suite of costly prizes, was bought up Mr. Parody in Calle Cangallo, and placed on the top with 500 dols. in one of the coat pockets, was crowded; several seedy looking customers tried to climb it, but all in vain, they 'slithered' down before they got half way; at last an English sailor made his appearance, and having made a slight oration to the gaping multitude in English with a strong Cork accent, jumped on to the pole and ran up it in two twos—when he grasped the splendid suit and the bran new hat and boots there was a tremendous cheer from the folks below.

On Sunday the day was very fine, and the Cathedral crowded with the fashion of the city, the general belief being that Mr. Wells would go up and come down on that day, thousands promenaded the plaza, but although the weather could not be more favorable, the popular Mr. Wells did not make his appearance, and people were greatly disappointed. We understand the reason of his non-ascension was positive orders which he received from the municipality not to go up if there was any mud. Our friend who walked off with the suit of clothes and the 500 dols. will have to call for them again on Sunday and recognised; he stated that he wanted to see if the municipality would try the game again, but there were no more prizes, however, so he amused the crowd by walking on a rolling barrel round the plaza, which he said he did out of pure 'diversion,' for the reason the people free gratis and for nothing.

An Irish sheep farmer just arrived from Lujan stated that he was charged for Lujan stage 64 instead of 48 dols. and from that station to the Plaza Once de Setiembre; he has requested us to call attention to the fact, that the stage clerks henceforward will be more particular; he said he didn't like kicking up a row for the sake of 6 dols. mp.

The Provincial Government has thought proper to commute the sentence of death passed on a man named Jose Gomez, to that of seven years military service; we have not heard the reasons which influced the Government to exercise its prerogative, and think that it would be well they were published; in a country like this where it is so hard to catch an assassin, mercy is a nuisance and leniency a crime. We call upon the Government to satisfy the public curiosity, and give the motives for commuting this man's sentence.

The Sumaria case we believe is just about to be published. Dr. Alsina is hard at work at it night and day. There is a story current that the distinguished Conifer proposes abolishing all the juez de paces in the camp, and also the alcaldes and tenientes. We suppose then that Dr. Alsina intends to institute stipendiary magistrates and trial by jury.

The employees of the National Government, owing to the great deficit in the treasury, are about to suffer a reduction in their salaries. We hope that the Congress session will consist of their own stipend also, as the payment of nine millions of paper money per annum to the legislators is the very heaviest impost on the country, besides legislators cannot possibly be so hard up as custom-house clerks, and it would be a very equitable arrangement if each province could be made to support her own representatives.

Tile-Breaking Association.

In these days of joint-stock companies it is no wonder that the young wags of the city should associate for mutual enjoyment and risk, to pass the long winter nights without 'ennui.' Unfortunately, there are some who cannot enjoy themselves without becoming a nuisance to the public, and the "Suma-Boys," or tile-breaking association, playfully undertook to smash all the hats which come in their way after dark. Such proceedings soon brought on them the odium of the police, although they really did no more than roughly handle some people who attempted to defend their head-gear, it was rightly presumed that after a while the practical joke might extend itself to knives, and something more valuable than hats would be the "scrounders." Sor Cazon was fortunate enough to entrap the ringleader, one Britos del Pino, a "gentleman" already famous for achievements of a daring, but not very commendable character. As he is, however, of a "highly respectable family," it is to be supposed that after a while the police will find themselves to release him from durance vile.

About two years ago a set of sparks calling themselves "Asociacion Cruz de Fuego," used their pranks to get up attempt scaling the walls of the French nunnery, and subsequently they shot a gendarme, stabbed a man in the back. The public voice was not slow in pointing out the performers, who, in such backward countries as Paraguay, would have had their enemy with their lives, but the matter was hushed up, and the young gentlemen sent to rusticate. Not many months ago a Frenchman was killed in Calle Paraguay, coming from the play at opera, and two Italians were stabbed: the authors were never discovered.

Under these circumstances it is not only reprehensible but dangerous for a band of youths, however innocently disposed, to assault people after dark. Some people may fancy a present of their watches, and draw a revolver: a life is easily lost, and the recollection would be painful in the extreme, while the "Suma-Boys" will hardly be proud to see the coffin of a young man, though bright his prospects cut off in so ignoble a manner.

Argentine Cotton in Liverpool,

In a letter received per French mail by Consul Hutchinson of Rosario from Messrs. Stolterfoht, Sons and Co., of Liverpool, these gentlemen observe:—"As mentioned in our last, we have had an opportunity of testing the efficiency of Atkinson's gins in cleaning some seed cotton lately sent from Rosario. Ginning was done very effectually, and the cleaned cotton realised 23½ per lb. The bale sent us from Buenos Ayres by Messrs. Mulhall is a very different style of cotton to the other, being more like Pernams—less fine and silky, but of better colour and more staple, and realised 24d. per lb. Seed 28½d. per lb for it, and could possibly sell to-day as much more at that price, as they could send. Good stapled cotton is much in Brazil, Egyptian and Americans, are getting scarce, and are much wanted—the chief increase in production being in the short stapled kinds, less suited for Mills, such as Smyrnas. Our market is quiet to-day (23rd May) and has been for a week past, awaiting the issue of the tremendous conflicts now going on in the States."

CHEVALIER EBORALL.

The King of the Belgians has conferred on Mr. Eborall, General Manager of the South Eastern Railway, the decoration of Chevalier of the Order of Leopold.

Mr. Eborall has many near relatives in this country, who, we have no doubt, will learn with pleasure the great honor His Majesty, the King of the Belgians, has conferred on him.

An American glance at the House of Commons.

The House is divided into four sections; 1. The Government party (to be liberal) and its straight-out supporters; 2. The partial supporters of the Government; 3. The Opposition and its straight-out supporters; 4. The partial supporters of the Opposition. The Government with Lord Palmerston at their head, sits on the speaker's right, the officers occupying the first seat down on the floor (for the benches rise higher as they recede to the wall). The first section and the first seat situation; although perhaps the first inquiry of every one who enters the House is, "Who is Lord Palmerston?" Lord Palmerston occupies the center of the bench, where he seems to have been carved to stay quite as much as that very dog-like lion in our Lion House. He sits there by night—that shrewd, ready-witted, reddish, white headed old Premier, with nerve, and judgment about him, not a tint of romance, not a trait of heroism, he is the fair representative of England in her so strict of England with no future before her except to "jog on" as long as she can to her past. On his left sits Mr. Gladstone, with strong features and a darkish look. He speaks with nerve, and his face is

MR. WELLS' GREAT BALLOON.

The during aronaut has already set three machines at work with Irish linen which is to form the great transcontinental balloon. It will be rather larger than Mr. Nadar's balloon, being over 100 feet in height and 75 in circumference, with a capacity of 250,000 cubic feet (30,000, more than Nadar's), being the largest ever made except Lowe's Great Western. The last-named was over double this size, and just ready to start from Philadelphia for Europe, with six aeronauts on board it burst. Mr. Wells has purchased the material from Messrs. Duguid. The pamphlet just published, with a portrait of Mr. Wells, by Mayer, and a picture of the great balloon, is very interesting and on sale at Messrs. Mackern's and the other book stores, price 25c.

It has been suggested that our Government might turn aerostation to great profit by sending some one to treat with the Indians, who would dispatch in their 'tolderia' and persuade them that he had come from Heaven with regulations for their conduct. We understand that Captain Hopkins proposes ex his readiness to undertake so perilous a journey, and already half a dozen are willing to accompany Mr. Wells in his overland trip.

THE NATIVE HOSPITAL.

Notwithstanding that there is both an English and Italian Hospital in this city, still the number of English and Italian patients every month received in the native Hospital is steadily on the increase. The present state of the native hospital is such, owing to the great influx of patients, that the doctors can hardly make their way through the dormitories, as not more than two beds are called for. We have been requested to call attention to the matter. The returns of the native Hospital for the month of June have been sent us.

Number of patients in the Hospital on the 31st of May, 605
Entered during June 409 1,07[illegible]

Died 35 403

Still in Hospital on July 1st, 67 of various nationalities.

DISAGREEMENT with BOLIVIA.

The Iguezy arrived yesterday with dates from Asuncion to the 2nd inst. Baron Von Gülick had arrived, as Prussian Minister to Paraguay, and was bearer of two magnificent decoration vases presented by King William to President Lopez. Colonel Da Gra'ty, author of La Regencia du Para guay, has been named Paraguayan Charge d'Affaires at Berlin. (This gentleman is also Argentine Consul General at Brazil). The steamer Africa arrived with 300 rolls of telegraph wires. The railway works on the new section from Pirayi to Cerro Leon, four miles, are completed, and will be open to traffic in a few days. This makes three sections opened in six months. A branch line to the encampment, three miles distant, is being also laid down, placing the head quarters within two hours' journey of the capital. An accident occurred on the line, near Pirayu, a piece of the engine breaking; the passengers were delayed five hours, no one was hurt, and the native mechanic, Almiron, succeeded in repairing the injury. The steamer Rio Blanco is now used for carrying down timber to the capital for the railway works. The arsenal is very busy, and has lately cast some fine bells for the Brazilian vessels at Corumba; the new steamers on the stocks are progressing under native ship-wrights. The feasts St. John and St. Peter and Paul were duly celebrated, the coadjutor bishop, Dr. Palacios preaching on the 29th. The river Paraguay continues rising.

The accounts from the agricultural districts are very encouraging, and we hear of notable improvements in the method and instruments of cultivation. The tobacco harvest is nearly over, and Government intends to introduce a great reformation in the curing and baling of this staple for exportation to Europe; some lots sold in Antwerp gave good results. We hear nothing about cotton, but it seems most of the crop failed, and of the remainder a large quantity is kept for home manufacture of a rude kind, so that the amount for exportation will hardly exceed a few hundred bales.

The 'Semanario' mentions unpleasant relations with Bolivia: a company called 'Progreso de Bolivia,' headed by one Antonio Taboas, solicited a patent from that Government to cut a highway through the Gran Chaco, from the port of Santa Cruz, which would terminate on the right bank of the river Paraguay between Bahia Negro and Rio Agra, and to establish here a river-port and market. The territory in question has long been claimed by both countries, the frontiers not being clearly defined. Nevertheless Paraguay is determined to oppose such an enterprise, and Fort Olympo will offer a serious impediment to the Bolivians. The Government of Chuquisaca has actually granted the concession, which if they attempt to carry out will involve hostilities. This is no doubt the secret of Sr. Arce's failure in his mission to Asuncion last January to open the navigation of the Pilcomayo. The Policy of the Argentine Government is viewed with distrust by President Lopez. New levies of troops from Missiones are hourly expected at Corrientes, and the encampment there has almost sprung up like magic, under the active Brigadier General Robles. The officers of the Chinchis Islands caused some indignation, but was judged comparatively unimportant as respects the security of South American republics generally. Improvements are going on in Asuncion, and the streets are about to be paved. Mme. Acosta is playing Lucia de Chamounix at the theatre. The President's birthday, 24th July, will be celebrated by the inauguration of Pesos at the capital and principal towns. Imports for June, 52,073 dols.; exports 183,305 dols.; duties on both, 26,559 dols.

LATEST FROM PERU.

BOMBARDMENT OF PISCO

The Iguzey has brought mails from Rosario. The Chilian mails had arrived with dates from Peru, May 16th, and Chile June 1st. The Peruvians were, as usual, inactive, but the passengers of the steamer Chile state that the Spaniards had commenced active hostilities, bombarding the port of Pisco because the Governor had refused them provisions. The Peruvian Cabinet visited the fortifications at Callao, and inspected the Monitor, which is being built. They are talking of building steel-plated frigates. Meantime the captain of the French barque Prince Imperial caused a panic at Lima by stating that he had been (only 67 days out) from Montevideo, and that there were there three Spanish men of war, including the armor frigate Tetuan Five Provisional a contract, we learn in the Callao frigate is to be converted into a Monitor in four months.

Two of Admiral Pinzon's officers took steamer at Pisco, en route for Chile, and thence they will proceed to Spain, via Montevideo. The Peruvian steamer Limeña, made an excursion among the islands with an English crew, and was captured by the Spaniards. The city of Guayaquil, fearful of hostilities, has declared itself free from Spanish vessels with provisions. The provinces of Arequipa and Tacna furnish 20,000 volunteers (on dry land), and several gentlemen have equipped companies.

The English, French, and Chilian ministers are on good terms in Lima, on the 5th of May, and embarked at Callao on board the English war steamer Shear-water for the Chincha Islands, to inspect the condition of the guano agents of Her Catholic Majesty. The latter offered every assurance that Spain would not touch terra firma, and only demanded full satisfaction: they released the war steamer Iquique, and Sor. Mazarredo came to Callao in the Shear-water, awaiting the return of the Ministers who went to the islands to Lima to consult the Government. Nevertheless there is no hope of an amicable settlement: it is said the steamer refused to admit Mazarredo, who is anxious to get home to Spain.

The Republic of Bolivia offers 6000 soldiers, four of which they consent to swim to the Chinchas, this is only a French compliment. Ecuador and New Granada are perfectly indifferent about the Spanish aggression. The Plenipotentiary of Venezuela was well received at Lima, and made a fine impression: it is said that the American continent, &c. In Chile there was so much agitation that the Spanish Minister, Sr. Lavica, demanded an explanation from Government about the meetings. D. Faustino Sarmiento harangued the President, Ministers, and people of Chile on the suspicious occasion.

The Spanish residents were insulted at Panama, and on board the Pacific mail-boats.

Average brokerage, $\frac{25}{32}$ per broker.

We are informed that after Bolsa hours a very important sale was effected by one of December, January, and February, at 28 85; the amount, we believe, is one hundred thousand patacons.

The brokers passed a rather idle day's work owing to the state of weather they kept in the hall, but the attendance of merchants was very slim. A drunken soldier presented himself at the threshold of the building, but the inexorable porter refused to allow him to enter, alleging that intoxication was strictly prohibited on 'Change.

General Urquiza has sent down an order for the payment of $2,500, being the first instalment on his shares. His letter is a speaking satire upon the great Argentine nabobs in this city.

The only thing we picked up on 'Change yesterday was the projected bank of emission at Cordova, which has been introduced by a distinguished English merchant of this city. The project has been laid before the Provincial Legislature of Cordova, and we hear will probably pass, the capital to be $2,000,000, with right to emit bank bills for double that amount. The Governor of Cordova is very favourably disposed towards the project.

There was a good deal said about the proposed armed intervention of Argentines in the Banda Oriental, and the general feeling is, that President Mitre ought to leave it alone, as the expenses which must be incurred would only add to the incumbrances that at present bear our treasury.

We are informed, on the very best authority, that one of the late firm of Dodero and Co., has returned from France, and is at present in this city.

It is wholly incredible that the Argentine bill discounters are able to carry on such a splendid business by means of the outrageous usury, which was alleged by a correspondent of the 'Nacion Argentina' and us, to be carried on; for if the statements referred to were correct, the discounters would be more numerous than what they are. No business in the way of discounting, indeed, we may say, in any part of the known world, will admit of the payment of such a usurious rate of interest as 4 per cent monthly. It follows, therefore, that if the statements in the letter referred to are correct, there is some other business carried on by some of our shopkeepers which must inevitably end in hopeless bankruptcy. If we are to believe report, the greatest amount of the 'pesos' in the hands of private bill discounters have been cashed at the most frightful rates, and would, we are sorry to say, in some other countries be perfectly valueless, under the usury laws, but here such a class of paper is kept running on, by what Argentines call the accommodation system, that is to say, a tenth or a twentieth part of a bill when it matures is paid, the interest of another ninety days is added on, the bill renewed, and the drawer and the payee are all serene for another three months; but this inverse-usurious system plan unfortunately, instead of coming to the payment of the bill, and thus paying it off by degrees, actually increases the principal every three months, and thus makes the payer poorer at every renewal.

We heard it remarked the other day, by one of our leading importers, that the great increase in the number of practitioners in this city is becoming rather suspicious, and calls for increased caution on the part of foreign merchants. We fear that the public are publishing to these remarks, since it has been proved that goods brought on credit are hypothecated to the shopkeeper only a few days after delivery, and sold for cash. It is easy to conceive that the shopkeeper who pays 4 and 5 per cent. a month interest, will resort to every subterfuge to meet his liabilities, but it is difficult to imagine that the foreign merchants should be taken in for their eyes, and such failures as those which have recently occurred, should be indiscriminate in their sales on credit.

SAVINGS BANK.

SANZ HAYA & CO.,

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that Bankers very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence. The Bank of Mond and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The same depositary in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artizans, working men, and others in similar conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the numerous gambling, lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mond and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Tuesday, the 1st of July, 1862, every day, Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve p.m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mond and Co. is sufficiently known in the Plate by the benefit derived from the course of its operations in Montevideo, to require further remarks, and merchant principles, as always directed to promote the general welfare

The Bank of Mond and Co. are confident that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 18, 1861.

Pp. Mond and Co.

WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or One Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p$) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited amounts to the sum of Five Hundred Dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twenty dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Charles Stewart (S C)

There are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoners of war confined in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, the accounts of which, as given in private letters and in the' newspapers, present a picture of human suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times The merest necessaries of life are wanting, and frequently the wounded prisoner has no raiment save that which is stark and stiffened with his clotted blood. Horrible as war is in all its features, assuredly it has no greater horrors than the long agony of the poor captive who, when the feverish excitement of the contest is over, is left to the bitter charity of strangers and foes, without one friendly hand to soothe the pains of body or friendly voice to whisper hope and comfort to the despairing mind. These men, cut off from the assistance of their kindred or the protection of their Government, have peculiar claims on the patriotism of their countrymen in Europe, and upon christian benevolence everywhere. They did not recklessly or from choice embrace the profession of arms, but in exchanging the comforts, and often the luxuries, of home for the toils and hardships of a soldier's life, they obeyed a stern sense of duty and the call of their country in its extremest need. An unusual proportion, also, of those that fill the ranks of the Confederate armies belong to the higher walks of life, upon whom privations, such as are endured by prisoners in the hands of the North, fall with increased severity.

The Southern Prisoners' Relief Fund is intended to mitigate some of these sufferings which cannot altogether be relieved. Within little more than a twelvemonth, nearly £9,000 have been collected and expended in relief. The managers of the Fund are assisted in their efforts by self-devoted ladies in the principal Northern cities, who visit the sufferers and give them such aid as the means at their disposal render possible. Of late the Federal Government has granted permission that this humanities work may be done openly. It is earnestly hoped that all Southerners residing in South America will support the Fund to the extent of their ability, and its objects may recommend themselves to all, irrespective of country or political convictions, who sympathise with the sufferings of their fellow-men.

Contributions will be received by J H Ashbridge, Treasurer, Walmer Buildings, Water Street, Liverpool; or in London, by Henry Hotze, Esq., 17 Saville Row, W.; in Paris, by H O Brewer, Esq. 6 Rue Circulare; and Daniel Hubbard, Esq., 24 Rue Lord Byron. j18in.

The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company, Subscriptions in Paper Money.

The Directors, wishing to enlarge the operations of the Society, have acceded to the request of many people in this city, and determined to issue shares payable in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, under the following conditions:—

Article 65—From the 1st of April, 1864, shares shall be issued to such persons as may wish to pay in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, and in accordance with Article 17 chapter 5 of the Statutes of the Society, the lowest sum receivable being $200 annually, payable in one sum, or in instalments, subject to the following rules:

1st—For Paper Money Subscribers sections will be opened and kept separate from Silver Money Subscribers.

2nd—The liquidation of the sums belonging to the sections of Paper Money Subscribers will be administered according to Article 31 of the Statutes, and for account of these particular sections.

By these means the Directory hopes to gain its object, which is to enable the poorer classes to enjoy all the advantages of the Society.

For further particulars, apply at the Co.'s Office, No. 87 Calle S. Martin (altos), where prospectuses and circulars may be had.

RIVER PLATE STEAM-SHIP COMPANY.

LIVERPOOL AND RIVER PLATE DIRECT.

NAMES OF STEAMERS.
LA PLATA,
PARANA, PARAGUAY,
URUGUAY, UNA.

One of these Steamers will leave Liverpool for Montevideo and Buenos Ayres on the 1st of each month.

Cargo will be received on board of the steamers 48 hours after their arrival, to be delivered in any part of the United Kingdom, or on the Continent, being forwarded by railway and steamer for account of the Company, the bills of lading being signed with these conditions.

As the object of the Company is to extend and facilitate the existing traffic between Europe and the River Plate, the rates of freight will be very moderate.

Specie and Parcels will be received until the day before the steamers leave.

The new Steamer PARAGUAY, Captain Pim, now loading, will sail hence on Friday, 8th July, and having very superior accomodation for both Cabin and Steerage passengers, she is an excellent opportunity for families and others going to Europe.

For Freight and Passage apply to the Sole Agents,
